Our Town

Our impossible contemporary the Camreon Enterprise has expressed an editorial opinion. But for this unusual thing we would find neither space or time to comment upon it. In order to have the people understand what it is, the paper labeled it "An Editorial." In this way it was given distinction. Otherwise it would have been susceptible to other interpretations. We are willing to accord neither sincerity of purpose or clairity to this first born opinion because it cantains none of the elements of originality, but for the sake of grace we will concede a helping hand. It is like the widow's might, "she hath done what she could." In other days when great principles of government cried out for vindication silence met the appeal for opinion and now with a misguided conception of public finances this paper adds insult to injury by lashing the people for voting their convictions in a bond election. It is poor grace to question the soverign will of the people and it is worse to forsake honesty. Sad indeed is the spectacle of a publication capable of great service to the people forced into the shadows by the gathering twilight of public opinion to rock the cradle of its first born.

Not only did the Enterprise interpose its objections to voting by those who may not have understood the questions at issue as intepreted by the adherants of the bonds, and thereby advocate abridgement of the ballot, but it questions the integrity of the citizenship by saying the people have voted to waste their money and do not now understand what they were doing when they defeated by nearly three to one all proposals for bonded debts and the refunding of outstanding obligations. The perception with which the people fathomed the issues in that campaign is keener by far than the blunt vision of the Enterprise for they saw beneath the surface and there measured many things that the "official organ" in its color blind policy could not distinguish

The Herald at no time has sought to array class against class. It has never felt that this is a government of class but a government for the whole of the citizenship. It has never been guilty nor does it approve the course of any newspaper or individual that scorns public opinion and willingly joins any effort to defeat the will of the people. The Herald believes in the rule of the people. The Enterprise believes in the rule of its own opinion—if indeed it has ever had an opinion. If advocating the rights of the people everywhere is construed by some to mean demagogury, we welcome the distinction. The government is of the people, by the people and for the people and we are with the people. We want the majority to rule and we are afraid of neither cyclone nor whirlwind. The Enterprise has engaged in illadvised criticism of the people, is disgruntled because of defeat and now seeks to square its actions by repudiating its own statements. To complete its infidelity would be to advocate the issuance of obligations in defiance of the vote of the people.

We are told that we have about ten days of grace for a rain. If moisture does not some within that time crop failure will be recorded for the first time in history of the county. We believe it is not as bad as this but there is little doubt as to the seriousness of the situation. In some sections fairly good rains have fallen but taking the territory as a whole insufficient moisture has fallen. Crops are up but cotton is reported dying in many places for lack of water. We can all agree upon this great need whether at five and a quarter or eight, it makes no difference.

The council, if the warrants are issued, will go counter to public sentiment. To issue the warrants in spite of the vote in the recent election will render the election void so far as public opinion is concerned. The issue as understood by the people was whether bonds should be issued running over a period of 15 years, or whether the city should finance its program on the tax rate by economizing in every way possible with the budget. The people voted against the bonds and we feel sure had the proposition been submited to authorize the city council to issue warrants the results would have been the same. It makes little difference whether we agree as to the method of financing but it is serious to go against the will of the people and in this way render void all expression upon the question at issue. We trust the city will not issue the warants; that the council will reconsider its action and abide by the results of the election.

INJUNCTION IS REFUSED

Reply Is Made In Gause Trustee Election Contest

COUNCIL VOTES TO SELL A BIG ISSUE OF WARRANTS

CITY WOULD REFUND ALL STREET AND BANK NOTES

WARRANTS TO BEAR SIX AND A QUARTER PER CENT INTEREST PROPOSED.

Contract to sell about $105,000 in warrants bearing six and a quarter per cent interest payable in fifteen years was made by the city council Saturday night with Gregg Garrett & Company of Dallas.

The warrants are to be used for taking up street paving warrants and to pay local banks for money borrowed.

In view of the recent election in which the people voted against the issuance of bonds it is thought the council would not attempt to issue the warrants but would attempt to finance the city along lines approved at the election.

It is said that the council has determined to issue the warrants as a means of financing the city and regardless of the election will sell them to the Dallas firm.

ELECTION CONTEST TO BEGIN HEARING MONDAY

KLAN AND ANTI-KLAN FACTIONS LINE UP FOR HEARING IN DISTRICT COURT.

Contest of the Gause school election in which Miss Hazel Thomas is suing for the office to which she claims to have been elected, has been set down for hearing in the District court Monday morning May 25 with Henderson, Kidd & Henderson representing Miss Thomas and W. A. Morrison representing D. W. Key and G. D. Critchfield.

Following the contest filed on May 1, Critchfield and Key resigned and the board appointed Miss Thomas but she declined the appointment and elected to go ahead with the suit.

The claim is set up by Miss Thomas that votes cast for her were not counted for her and that she is entitled to the office. In the reply Critchfield and Key disclaim any respoisibility saying they have resigned.

W. H. Bailey who was also in the race for school trustee did not join with Miss Thomas in the contest but in his reply says he will serve if it has been shown he has been elected.

The case will open in the district court Monday with Judge John Watson presiding. The case is to be tried before the court and not a jury.

Considerable interest is being taken in the case because it is a contest between Klan and Anti Klan factions, the latter claming that the election was unfair because votes for Miss Thomas were not counted or announced for her.

Affidavits have been made by 139 that they voted for Miss Thomas when the official result was announced shows that she was credited with only 62 votes.

CITY MAY LOSE SUREET MAINTENANCE CONTRACT

WARRANT PART ON CONTRACT AND NEW ISSUE MAY COST CITY HEAVILY.

In presenting these objections to the issue of warrants proposed by the city to refund $71,000.00 in street warrants, the Herald wishes to call the attention of the council as well as the public to a possible loss of advantage in the refunding program.

While the maintenance of the streets may follow any issue of warrants, if difficulties should raise and these rights lost to the people, it cannot be said that warning was not given.

Upon investigation it develops that the City of Cameron would have authority to issue evidences of indebtedness, such as the paving warrants, but they are non negotiable, and the person to whom they are transferred acquires no more rights than the person to whom they were issued.

The paving warrants have none of the qualities of negotiable paper and are subject to all the equities attached to the original transaction for which they were given.

The amount of $71,000 of the paving warrants is still outstanding and we understand the law to be should there be any defect in the material with which the streets are constructed at any time before the last installment of warrants should become due or prior to that time, then the city would have the right to plead this defect in the material as against the payment of the warrant. Under the warrants as issued there can be no innocent purchaser and the buyer of the warrants occupies the same position as the person to whom the warrants were isseud.

The refunding of the street paving warrants cannot make the warrants negotiable, but the fact new warrants are issued and sold—it might have a tendency to complicate matters, should the pavement be defective during the life of the warrant issue.

While it is true the original contractor, W. E. Dozier, executed a contract and bond for five years maintenance on the streets, but it now develops that in addition to the bond for the proper maintenance of the streets, any defect therein could be plead as against the warrants then unpaid. This seems to give to the tax payers of the city of Cameron a two fold security for the proper maintenance of the streets and if the warrants are subject to defense of failure of consideration in the hands of the parties who now own them, why issue refunding warrants covering a period of fifteen years and speculate as to whether the rights now existing in reference to having the streets properly maintained still exist in the hands of the new purchasers, as exist at the present time?

MAN DAVIS, FARMER IS KILLED AT SAN GABRIEL

JACK MOORE HELD ON CHARGE OF MURDER AND EXAMINING TRIAL HELD.

Examining trial for Jack Moore charged with the killing of Man Mavis, farmer, at San Gabriel Monday morning, was held here Thursday before Judge Ed. F. English.

The defendant did not go on the witness stand and at the conclusion of the trial his bond was fixed at $20,000 Up to Friday morning he had not made the bond. He is represented by Senator A. E. Wood of Granger.

Davis was shot to death in the field while plowing. Moore telephoned for the sheriff after the shooting. Both men resided on the same farm and both were interested in the crops. Davis was killed with a single barrel shot gun with buckshot.

The body was found by a negro who was told by Moore that he had killed Davis, according to the office of the sheriff. Jack Lewis district attorney and L. L. Blaylock, sheriff, went to the scene of the shooting to investigate after Moore had been arrested and brought here by Chas Sens and Ray Robinson, city marshal.

It was said the men had quarreled at the barn early in the morning. Both men have families. Moore is 33 and Davis was about 28 years old.

LEGION MEMORIAL DAY PROGRAM HERE MAY 30

LUTHER JOHNSON ASKED TO DELIVER ADDRESS HERE SATURDY MAY 30.

Tuesday night the American Legion adopted a program for decoration day here on Saturday May 30 and has asked Congressman Luther Johnson to deliver the address. Mr. Johnson will be here to address the school at commencement exercises and will be asked to remain over for the address at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

A full program will be issued and distributed to the public. Graves of the war dead will be decorated and committees have been named to go to other sections of the county. The Boy Scouts will participate in the program with a flag raising. The Scouts will also sell poppies on that day by arrangement with the executive Geo. Barron.

The Legion has not located the graves of a number of men who are said to have been buried in this county and will welcome the assistance of the people in locating the burial places.

Rush and Monta Thomas returned last week end from a few days visit in Galveston.

CRITCHFIELD AND KEY IN REPLY DENY ALL CHARGES

SAY COURT WITHOUT JURISDICTION AND THAT THEY HAVE RESIGNED.

G. D. Critchfield and D. W. Key of Gause against whom Miss Hazel Thomas has directed contest proceedings along with A. Varner, S. R. Cochran and W. H. Bailey, have replied to the notice of contest served by attorneys for the contestant in which they deny allegations made and set out in detail their grounds for resisting the suit.

The reply of Varner, Cochran and Bailey sets out that they have been duly elected and ask the court to make investigation of the charges that fraud was practiced in the election.

Critchfield and Key having resigned deny they are holding the office and cannot be made a party to the proceedings. The board upon the resignation of Key and Critchfield, elected Miss Thomas who refused to serve and proceeded with the suit.

The suit will have the result of opening the ballot boxes and investigating whether the charges of fraud are true.

W. A. Morrison has been retained as counsel for Key and Critchfield.

The following reply was filed by Mr. Morrison for his clients:

To Miss Hazel Thomas,
Gause, Texas.

Madam:

"In reply to your notice of intended contest delivered to us on the first day of May, A. D. 1925, we make reply as follows:

1. "We deny that the District Court of Milam County, Texas, has any jurisdiction to try or hear the proposed election contest mentioned by you, for the reason that no authority has been conferred by the Legislature upon said court to hear contests of the character of the contemplated one outlined by you

2. "We deny that we, or either of us, are holding the office of school trustee for the Gause Independent School District, and we deny that we, or either of us, are trustees or that we, or either of us, are holding the position of trustee coveted by you.

3. "We deny your right to maintain your contemplated contest of

GOLF CLUB AND FISHING LAKE ARE BEING PLANED

FUNDS TO BE USED FOR IRRIGATION PROJECT AND BUILDING LAKE.

A new golf link with a fishing lake will be realized if plans now under way are carried out.

This week a membership list is being circulated and a large number have already signed up for membership in a country club site on the Green Tracy farm west of Cameron. The Tracy brothers are organizing the golf and country club association for the benefit of a proposed irrigation project. The funds received through membership and dues will be applied to building a lake and dam for irrigating land.

The Tracy farm has one of the largest flowing springs in this section of the state. The proposed lake would serve as an irrigation reservoir and for club fishing.

Adjoining the lake site a golf course is to be laid out and those who prefer golf will have this diversion.

APPEAL TAKEN IN GAUSE SCHOOL ELECTION FIGHT

INJUNCTION TO STOP OPENING BALLOT BOX DENIED BY JUDGE WATSON.

Late Wednesday afternoon, before Judge John Watson of the Milam County District Court, attorney E. A. Camp, of Rockdale, presented the petition of F. D. Fowler, W. C. Hatter and H. H. Gaston,for an injunction restraining Miss Hazel Thomas from further contesting the school trustee election in the Gause district. Judge Watson refused to grant the injunction, and the petitioners immediately perfected an appeal to the Court of Civil Appeals at Austin, where the case will come up for early hearing.

The election contest case of Miss Thomas against D. W. Key and others is set for hearing in the District Court here on Monday, and the plaintiffs in the injunction case allege that if permitted to continue the contest Miss Thomas will have the ballot boxes opened and expose their votes and violate the secrecy of their ballots.

Mr. Fowler is a member of the Gause School Board, which canvassed the election, while Messrs. Hatter and Gaston were officers of the election, which is involved in the contest.

BRYAN WALKER IS GIVEN A PRISON SENTENCE

PLEA OF GUILTY NETS 2 YEARS IN EACH CASE AGAINST HIM.

Bryan Walker charged by indictment with burglary and theft in connection with the robbery of the Thorndale Mercantile Company on December 14, 1920, entered a plea of guilty in district court here and was given a two year sentence in two cases.

Walker was captured on Friday May 8 in Corrigan, Texas, Polk county, after he had escaped from jail by sawing his way to liberty. He was caught by Sheriff Blaylock who returned the prisoner to Cameron for trial.

Walker received his sentence in a calm manner and with him was his young wife who looked up with eyes filled with tears as the judge pronounced the sentence. The wife drove Walker away in the shadow of night after he had cut his way to liberty and was with him when arrested near the Arkansas line. She has been released.

Walker will be taken to Lubbock where he is to stand trial there for possession of liquor, having been indicted by the grand jury there.

He has been at liberty for five years but was recently arrested in Lubbock where the liquor charge was lodged against him.

He was brought to trial after five years in which Sheriff Blaylock and Texas officers had followed him over the country and into old Mexico.

Landry Green, negro entered a plea of guilty for forgery, an attempt to pass a check on W. J. Wood of Cameron and was given 2 years. Jess Smith and Joe Gordon, negroes, were given 2 years in two cases each, for theft of cotton. The cotton was stolen at Burlington and one bale sold at Rockdale and the other sold at Brenham.

KLAN WIZZARD TO SPEAK IN BRYAN

Bryan, May 16—Invitation has been extended to the people of Bryan through the local press to hear Dr. H. W. Evans, imperial wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, and Gen. N. B. Forrester, both of Atlanta, Ga., who will address the people of this community Saturday, May 23.

The anncuncement that Dr. Evans, the imperial Wizzard of the Ku Klux Klan, will speak in Bryan Saturday night will take a number of Cameron Klansmen to that city to hear the wizzard. While Dr. Evans has visited Texas on numerous occasions during his term of office and formerly resided in Dallas, this is his first visit to central east Texas.

STREET FAIR AND HUGH CARNIVAL BY STUDENTS

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY SCHOOL PUPILS WILL STAGE BIG CELEBRATION.

Tomorrow, Friday 22, under the auspices of the Senior class with the co-operation of the Yoe Hi Student body the biggest event of the year will be held—a street fair and carnival continuing thru Friday and Saturday.

A big parade Friday evening at 3 o'clock will be one of the best features of the fair. The program for the two days will include a bull fight, the sensational sport of the southwest and old Spain.

The greased pole and pig will afford the houmorous part of the program. The Athletic show will be a feature attraction for the "dyed-in-the-wool" fans, deciding the amateur boxing and wrestling championship of Milam county.

Fancy and Stunt diving by Yoe Hi products that will thrill the on-lookers is to be one of the head line attractions. First class music will be furnished by the Discord Harmony Boys, Cameron Municipal Band, Cornelson's Orchestra, "Nigger Brass Band" and the "Sothing Seven." The Discord Harmony Boys have already won an enviable position by their rag-time and jazz broadcasted from station YOHI. The head liner for the carnival will be the negro minstrel—Jou'll burst your sides laughing.

Besides these star attractions, numerous booths and events close this display of some of the most famous attractions of Texas. All the people of the county are cordially invited to attend this Yoe Hi Fair and Carnival.

Miss Buena Hill, the seventeen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. I. Hill of Buckholts, Texas, died Sunday at the Cameron Hospital.

Her funeral occured Monday at Bryan Station cemetery conducted by Rev. Ewing, pastor of the Christian church of Buckholts. She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. I. Hill, four sisters, Florence, Cleo, now Mrs. Walter Blansett of Goose Creek, Texas, Jessie, Ida Lee and Lucile and three brothers Williard, Claude and J. Z. Hill.

The funeral was attended by many friends among those attending from Cameron were ex-Sheriff Drue S. Rogers and his children Lorice, Delma and Luther Rogers.

PUPILS OF ROBERT SMITH IN RECITAL AT YOE HI.

The pupils of Robert Smith will give their annual music recital at the Yoe High School on Tuesday and Wednesday May 26 and 27th.

Mr. Smith has a large class of music pupils and will arrange an exceptional recital program for the two nights.

SOMETHING ABOUT THE SENIOR CLASS.

'Way back in 1921 when the Class of '25 entered Yoe Hi, it out rivaled the greenery of the verdant Emerald Isles. The students of that class were seekers of education; they entered the wilderness of Algebra, Latin, History, General Science and English somewhat bewildered but with their omnipresent quality to get ahead, they conquered the untrodden lands, and eventually have attained the envied position of the Pioneers of Education in Yoe Hi.

That quality of greeness which every "Fish" must have in his reporterie soon faded and with rapid strides the "Fish" became accustomed to their new role, even as they did to the ever lurking Soph and upperclassman who hungered for revenge and a scalp, oft times springing on the uwnary "Fish" from ambush. They achieved the distinction of being praised by Mr. L. H. Kidd for their ability to study, and given the Juniors a fight for first place in the Green of the Carnival Contest.

When they became Sophmores, the wise-fools of Yoe Hi, they retaliated and gained their long looked for revenge, extracting it from "poor innocent Fish." They set a remarkable record in study, sustaining the record of the previous year.

During their third year, they presented Yoe Hi with the painting, the "Blue Boy," the second class of Yoe Hi to present the school with a picture. With the help of their sponsor Miss Vera Lee Moore they gave the High School a school song representative of the spirit fostered in it that of fairness, pep, and "never say die" spirit. Their pep and unwonted zeal was a model of the High School, giving them the title as the peppiest class in Yoe Hi.

During the fourth year the Class of '25 achieved its greatest laurels. The class presented Inniss' "Home of Heron" to the school, sponsored the Austin Hi band, and contributed to the High School, the largest quota of athletes of any class. It had the largest number of foot ball letter men, constituted the greater part of the basket ball team, had several stellar track performers, and made up the largest percentage of the base ball team.

Up until the fourth year the Class of '25 held the High School Class foot ball championship. And if Dame Luck who is so fickle and desertes one in his direst need of her had favored the Seniors ,the toss of the coin would have decreed the Seniors champions for the fourth consecutive year.

The Seniors have set ideals, examples, and a record for the following classes to strive for, and perhaps to surpass. May the Juniors who so commended the Seniors in their edition become the best class in old Yoe Hi, to establish an age old tradition to make the Senior Class always the best in Yoe Hi.

KLAN OFFICIAL NAMED IN TRIAL TESTIMONNY

ALLEGED SLAYER OF DR. HOLTON WITNESS IN OWN BEHALF AT MARLIN.

Marlin, Texas, May 16.—In the case of J. T. Person, charged by indictment with murder in connection with the killing of Dr. J. O. Holton at Prairie Hill April 2, 1924, brought to Falls County on change of venue, Defendant Person testified that Ku Klux Klan threats were communicated to him before the killing of Holton. Witness said he did not kill Holton on account of the Ku Klux Klan, but "understood that the Ku Klux had threatened him."

Witness said he was told that Holton said "the Ku Klux had captured 300 high-powered rifles from the Catholics and may use some of them right in Prairie Hill; that no doubt somebody would be killed and Person might be one of them." Witness said these threats made him uneasy.

While Person was being cross-examined by Attorney Machen for the prosecution as to the klan threats and who made them the witness said: 'Your highest official in the State."

"You mean the Governor of Texas?" Mr. Machen asked.

"No, I mean the Ku Klux Klan," said Person. "Alvah Bryan at Waco, whom I understand to be the highest official in the State, told me the Ku Klux might wait on me."

Several witnesses were placed on the stand to testify as to the character of Holton. B. Coker, Prairie Hill peace officer, said that he had known Dr. Holton for twenty-two years and that he would likely have carried out any threats he made. He said Holton had the reputation of being a dangerous man when angry. Holton had the reputation of not being afraid. Witness said he had never heard of Holton being in but one serious difficulty, and that was the Torrence killing fifteenor sixteen years ago. Witness said Holton was a kind man. Coker said when Person gave him the pistol after the killing he said he "hated to do it."

Bruce McKinney, cousin of the defendant, told of Dr. Holton shooting at some geese at Prairie Hill. Witness said he walked up the street, saw Person and asked where Holton got the rifle and witness tod him it was in the car.

ALL WORN OUT?

So Was. Mr. Price Who Tells His Experience.

Are you tired all the time; worn-out night and day? Does your back ache as if it would break? Do you suffer dizziness, headaches, rheumatic twinges or distressing urinary disorders? You have good cause, then to be alarmed about your kidneys. Do as many of your townfolk recommend. Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuertic to the kidneys. This Cameron case is convincig:

A J. Price, farmer, R. F. D. 2, says: "My kidneys were in such poor shape, I had to get up as often as seven times during the night. This kidney disorder put my back in an aching condition and, dull, dragging pains took me across my kidneys. I felt all tired out, but after using Doan's Pills from Thomas & Sons' Drug Store, backache and kidney trouble was relieved."

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET CONTEMPLATED.

In accordance with the custom of the Juniors, treating the Seniors at the end of the year, the junior class forming plans which if carried out will be a joy to every junior and senior, for they will be the generous hosts to a banquet. On one occasion this year the two classes combined in a picnic which proved a huge success, and it is the wish of every one that the two classes will again unite in a joyous festival.

YOEMEN AT STATE MEET

On Friday, May 8, the following track men accompanied by Coaches Perkins nad Lacy, went to the State Interscholastic Track Meet held at Ausitn: "Soppy" Sapp, Ed. Thompson, "Unk" Young.

Although the Yoemen tied the State records of previous years, they failed to place in the finals. They all placed in the semi-finals however, and we think that that in itself is a worthy accomplishment.

Cameron "On the Square" Texas

Local and Personal

I respectfully ask that parents do not allow their children to play around the Oil Mill premises and my gin premises . I ask this for two reasons: First there is danger to the children and second because considerable brass, sacks and other articles have been taken recently by boys, and I know that parents do not want reflections cast on their children for the misdeeds of others.

Respectfully,

3-2t R. L. BATTE.

FREE RADIO SET FOR GASOLINE BUYERS

OWENS REFINING CO. HAS NOVEL GIFT PLAN FOR CUSTOMERS.

A Grebe radio set complete valued at $140 will be given away free by the Owens Refining Company.

The set will be given to the one holding the luck key that opens the lock now on exhibition at the station With each purchase of $1 at the several stations selling Motopower gasoline, a key is given. Somewhere among the keys is the key to the lock. To the person receiving the right key goes the radio set.

The radio set and the lock in a sealed glass jar are now on display at the Owens Refining Company station where all may see. With each purchase of $1 a key is given. When all the keys are given away someone among the customers will have the right key that will unlock the lock.

When the right key is presented the radio set will be awarded to the person holding the key.

Mr. Owens in discussing the gift said: "We have arranged an excellent gift for buyers of our gasoline and oil products and have hit upon this novel way of awarding the gift to our friends. We will give keys to all our customers who purchase at the progressive stations selling our products. We invite the public to visit our station and see this wonderful radio set."

The following stations are giving keys of the "mysterious lock" that will get the radio set: Bormore Motor Company, Hubert Hefley Motor Co., Cameron Machine Shop, John Jistel Service Station, Cameron, W. S. Lamkin Store, and W. H. Fletcher, Minerva.

The keys are now on sale and with each purchase as outlined a key will be given the purchaser.

The radio set is one of the best to be found. It has a receiving range of the entire continent and is fully euqipped with battery and all parts.

MRS. EVA MILLER RANDOLPH.

The funeral of Mrs. Eva Miller Randolph was conducted by Rev. E. S. Hutcherson, pastor of the Cameron Bapist church, at Little River church Monday morning May 18, 1925.

Mrs. Randolph's death occurred at her Cameron home Sunday afternoon after an illness which began last December but had only been acute for a short time. She was seventy five years of age and is survived by her youngest brother, Mr. Julian Miller, and her sister, Mrs. McFarlane, with whom she lived and who will miss her presence so sorely.

Mrs. Eva Miller Randolph, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Absolom Miller of Dale County, Alabama was born there July 6, 1849 and came to Branchville, Milam county, Texas, with her parents and their family in 1875. Her sisters who grew up in Texas and married here are Mesdames Johnson of Victoria, Bryan of Elgin, McFarlane of Cameron. Her brothers still live in Milam county and are Mr. Ab Miller of String Prairie, Mr. D. E. Miller of Branchville and Mr. Julian Miller of Cameron.

While a girl, Mrs. Randolph joined the Baptist church under the pastorate of Rev. W. E. James at Little River church. She was married to Mr. John M. Randolph a prominent citizen in 1891 and they lived on their farm at the Randolph Crossing on Little River until they moved to Cameron in 1897. After the death of her husband in 1909, she lived for several years at Maysfield with her brothers but returned to Cameron some years ago to keep house for her brother Julian Miller who is a veteran rural route carrier.

Her passing is deplored by many friends. The funeral services were largely attended and the floral tributes from friends were many and beautiful.

DeLAY MEETING.

The Revial meeting conducted by Hub DeLay, Evangelist closed Sunday evening with a great reconsecration service in which all who were in the great congregation assembled in the Methodist church participated. Cameron Methodist church, members of every church in Cameron and people who came from rural churches were strengthened in their Christian life and lifted to a higher plane of religious life and thinking under the preaching of this remarkable Evangelist from Tyler ,Texas. The revival lasted three weeks and large crowds were present at every service.

The following persons took the vows of the Methodist church at the close of the last revival service:

C. S. Peyton, Grady Stidham, W. S. Keith, Elizie Robinson, Roy Mabry, Mrs. J. Bryan, Mrs. A. Lewis, Lois Story, T. C. Lynch, Lorene Plentl, Effort Hazeltine, Dan Collins, Marvin Sykes, Mrs. Arthur Baskin, Jr., Mrs. A. C. Hughes, Mrs. Mahala Jackson, Roy Baskin, Jr., Ola Rae Belt, Mrs. Elizie Robinson; Glen Howard, Hubert Ingram, Robert Terry, Lester Williams, Miss Evelyn McCall, R. H. Davis, Mrs. Ada Luce, August Horstmann.

Miss Pitts—Sue, I'm only punishing you because I love you."

Sue Mc.—"I wish I was big enough to return your love."

Fred Childress—(Going to school) Hey! I'm going your way!"

Ganelle (waving back)—"So I see, but I'll get there before you do."

HISTORY THEMES ENTERED IN STATE CONTEST.

After several weeks of hard and strenuous work the pupils of C. H. Yoe High School have submitted themes upon some local subject, which has some history or importance about it. Miss Moore, Senior History teacher, has worked faithfully with the "historians" and feels certain that her untiring efforts will be rewarded with either a first or second place. Most of the themes sent in were written by SENIORS with the exception of one junior.

SOMETHING THE MATTER!

Delmar Criswell has received a letter addressed to "Miss Delma Criswell." We wonder if that's the kind of an impression he is creating.

CALDWELL DEFEATS YOEMEN IN A DOUBLE HEADER.

Quite recently the Yoemen played two successive games with the Caldwell nine and were defeated by a narrow margin both times. However it was not due to bad playing by the Yoemen, it was due to the fact that Caldwell had the stronger team and we will admit the fact.

Words of our dear Profs remind us,
We can use a big words as they,
And departing leave behind us,
People wondering what we say.

Miss Pitts—"What figureof speech is 'I love teacher?'"

Chick—"A heap a 'sacrasm I 'spek."

Scientists say there is no such things as a complete vacuum, but they've never cut into a Junior's swelled head.

Some people are so dumb they think:
That an elephant has a key to his trunk.
A hurricane is a walking sitck.
If they eat a square meal the corners will hurt,
The Prince of Wales is a fish.
That Longfellow was funny because he made Minniehaha.
That if a rope was thrown to a drowning lemon
They would be given that lemonade.

NIGHT BEAUTY.

Frank Mondrik.

The shades of day flare into a dark night,
One that is lit with yellow light,
So vague, it shimmers on yon lake
A mystic secret, night enfolds,
And moonlight pale and gold that moulds
A witch'ry of enchanting elves,
As sad and mournful calls of doves.

A harp from tree tops sighs a song
And to its mourful strains belong
A host of sweeter night-time tunes
Oft praised in ancient Nordic runes.

It is the beauty of the night
That bids the vagrant fancies flight.
Its moonlight medley, nectar wine
That leads astray those thoughts of time.

Cldye Yarbrough—"There are an awful lot of girls who don't want to get married."

Mary Virginia—"How do you know?"

Clyde—I've asked them."

BLANKET TAX FOR ALL STUDENTS IN 1925-26

LEVY FOR EXPENSES OF GAMES, EQUIPMENT, PAPER AND ALL SIMILAR ITEMS.

One of the best things Yoe High could have is contained in the recommendations for next year high school term. The recommendation is that a blanket tax of $3 be levied against each student upon his or her entrance in high school. This tax would cover the expense of games, play ground equipment, school paper, lyceum tickets and library fee. The tax will be paid the same as tuition but will not be absolutely compulsory.

Now high school can be run on a substantial economical basis unless some similar plan is adopted. The school paper met with a number of difficulties this year because we did not have such a tax in effect. This plan would broaden the spirit of Yoe Hi and we would stand one hundred strong for all activities.

The SENIORS are backing this measure to the limit and when we decide to do a thing we generally succeed. We hope the other classes will see the advantage of such a measure and vote for a blanket tax. It is only by the unanimous cooperation of the entire student body the Yoe High will continue to progress.

WESTWARD HO!

The only school play to be presented this year will be given at the High School Auditorium, May 28, at 8:15 p. m. This play is a representation of the early frontier days of West Texas and the setting and general plot are based on actual historical facts and incidents beginning with the establishment of the Spanish mission near San Saba over two hundred years ago, and leading up to the raids of Geronimo in that country. This drama was especially written and arranged for the portrayal of early Texas life and should be worth seeing both for amusement and historical value.

Cowboy songs and other music appropriate for the occasion will be furnished between acts.

Cast of characters of Westward Ho!

FIREMEN'S CONVENTION.

On Thursday of last week the Cameron Volunteer Fire Racing team competed in the State contest at Cisco. The team is almost wholly composed of High School athletes and is very fast, however there were some teams there that were faster and the Cameron team failed to place.

Cameron tied a record they had set several years ago but Belton went so far as to break that record and make a new one. As Cameron did not get it we were glad that Belton did because of the friendly spirit between the two towns.

The High School boys report a most excellent time and wish to express their gratitude to the Cisco people for their wonderful hospitality to them .

STUDENT SAVES BROTHER IN A HEROIC STRUGGLE

SCOUTCRAFT RESPONSIBLE FOR AND TO STRICKEN YOUTH IN FALL OFF TRESSEL.

To those people who see no good in Scout training let me relate an incident of no mean importance that occurred last Sunday afternoon.

Gene Crowell and his two brothers Robert and Cecil had gone walking on the railroad track. They were on the tressel, and were searching for one of the ladders on the side, for they wished to descend to the ground below. The youngest of the three, Robert who was standing quite close to the edge looked over to find the ladder. As he turned his head to call to his brothers he lost his balance and fell the whole distance to the ground, landing on his back. His brothers were frightened and made all haste to reach the prostrate form lying below them. Reaching the boy's body, Gene found him in a critical condition. A hasty examination showed that no bones were broken but Robert was not breathing. Turning him over, face down, Gene did what his scout law said to do in such a case. He used artificial respiration. It was six minutes before he got any results, then Robert gasped, but it was fifteen minutes before he was breathing naturally. The two brothers, thankful in their hearts, carried the boy home where a doctor was summoned. Gene did exactly the right thing or the boy might have died. Robert is progressing nicely now though he is still in bed and Gene is to be praised for his quick work in saving the life of his brother. If he had not had his scout training he could not have done what he did.

ROMAN BANQUET.

The happy occasion of the past week was a Roman Banquet in all its uniqueness given by the Latin Club on the second floor hall of the school building and the predominating color scheme was purple and white. Large bowls of larkspur graced the tables and were placed at vantage points in the hall. Clever latin posters adorned the walls.

The menu was in Latin. The Non-Latinists were afraid to venture upon such foods as "Sandovici gallinae" and "Panis Cryppus Salsus." An interesting and varied program was rendered throughout the evening consisting of speeches and responses, poems and songs, yells and jokes, all embracing that interesting language —Latin. From the opening remarks of the Toastmaster to the final adieux the banquet was a grand success. Interest was revived in the Latin language and everybody had a grand time.

"EL NOPAL."

On April 30th the Spanish club met in room 24 to witness the screening of a group of famous pictures from Mexico. These pictures were collected by Miss Zurfluh while touring that country last summer. As each picture was shown it was explained. The old scenes seemed beautiful with their variety of colors and variance of subjects. To make the hour more pleasant "Zurfluh doughnuts" were served to the audience. The club adjourned to meet Wednesday week. Everybody be there for a good time is insured.

YOEMEN DEFEAT MINERVA.

On last Monday the fast little Yoemen nine swooped down on the Minerva team and easily beat them by a large score. It was merely a practice game for the Yoemen and gave the undauntable "Hot Shot" a chance to show his stuff.

More Miles

Here's The Reason

MOTOPOWER

The GASOLINE That LUBRICATES

It LUBRICATES! That, in a nutshell, is the big secret of MOTOPOWER Gasoline. That explains why users of MOTOPOWER are getting more miles per gallon from a sweeter-running motor. That is the reason why this great motor fuel discovery is creating a sensation wherever introduced to the motoring public.

It's as plain as A. B. C. Just listen to this! MOTOPOWER softens and reduces carbon, the motorists greatest enemy. With the upper cylinder, valve seats and valve stems properly lubricated by this film of oil, the valve seat proprely and there is a minimum of friction in the cylinders. This is the secret of good compression.

With compression at its best and your engine constantly lubricated within ,the natural result is more power and greater mileage. Consider the saving, not only in gasoline, dollars and cents —because MOTOPOWER sells for the same price as ordinary gasoline—but in repair bills and in the satisfaction of having a motor that sings the sweet song of efficiency!

MERIT MEDALS TO BE PRESENTED STUDENS BY THE LIONS CLUB.

Members of the Lions Club of this city will present merit medals to the students of our school for work done this year. These medals are of beautiful design and the winners of them should be proud to say that they deserved to win one of them as a badge for merit in that subject.

The SENIOR class realizes that the Lions Club is a friend of our school and does much to help us forge ahead in our work and activities. They are always ready to back us in any undertaking, large or small, and they have been the means by which several of our entertainments have been a success. We wish to thank them for their hearty co-operation.

The following is a list offered by the Lions Club: Best boy declaimer, best girl declaimer, best essay writer, best extemporaneous speaker, best historian, best scientist, best typist, best D. E. Student, best mathematician ,best Latin student, the student whose grades and attitude show greatest improvement over last year, honor student graduate and the most valuable student to the school, this last to be decided by the student body.

DISCORD HARMONY BOYS.

In the spring, and especially that time near the close of the long nine-months period of school, the young man's fancy naturally turns to romance and its sudry relations. About the best way of expressing this feeling is music and it is not infrequent that you hear a merry whistle at the close of day when the sun lends a golden blend to the atmosphere and the mystic shadows of night settle down on the landscape.

According to the natural instincts before mentioned, the youth of Yoe Hi is no exception to the rule. As a proof of this custom, several of the more aspiring young men of Yoe Hi organized themselves into an orchestra known as the Discord Harmony Boys and set themselves to the task of producing some of the more pleasant compositions of sound. This troupe of young artists contains nine members as follows:

Wallace Hopkins, Director and Cornet; Carl Bryan, Manager and Guitar; Nathan McGehee, Cornet; Mary Ellen Manning, Piano; Edward Manning, Violin; Don Slocomb, Clarinet; "Loney" Mayfield, Banjo; "Skipper" Mayfield, Saxophone; O. V. Sheffield, Cornet. The original orchestra contained only boys, hence the name, but later the pianist Miss Manning was added to the company but the name was left the same.

Tuesday morning in chapel, this noted orchestra gave a very unique, (if not artistic) program in the form of a radio program. The curtain was closed and a loud speaker placed in the middle of the stage in front of the closed curtain. With a microphone behind the curtain, all announcing and acknowledging of telegrams was done by Carl Bryan. The orchestra played about ten numbers, when on account of a break in the transmission apparatus the station, YOHI, had to sign off. The numbers played by the orchestra were some of the latest jaz, but there was also some classical selections such as Barnyard Blues, and How Dry I Am.

The next performance of the Discord Harmony Boys will be staged at the Senior Fair and Carnival, where they will be the leading orchestra and probably furnish most of the amusement in a musical way.

SENIOR GRATITUDE .

We, the Senior Class of '25, wish to express our appreciation to every one who has helped us to overcome our many trials as we were striving to reach the goal that we shall soon attain. We wish to express our gratitude for the assistance given us by the facutly. They have guided us in the right, defeating many difficulties with their aid that we could not have mastered otherwise. We feel that a great part of our success is due to them and we take this occasion to thank them heartily. To the citizens of Cameron we are also grateful. They gave us their co-operation and supported us in all things we undertook. Without their aid very little could have been accomplished. We also think the board of trustees are due a great amount of praise for in our opinion they have certainly chosen the very best of teachers in the state to train us and they also considered everything best for us. The class of '25 is grateful and thankful for all these helpful hands and we sincerely hope that we may prove worthy of you, of Yoe High and of Cameron.

BILIOUS SPELLS

Kentucky Man Finds Relief from Dizzy Attacks.

"I suffered with severe bilious attacks that came on two or three times each month," says Mr. J. P. Nevins, of Lawrenceburg, Ky.

"I would have dizziness and couldn't work.

"I would take pills until I was worn-out with them. I didn't seem to get relief. After taking the pills my bowels would act a couple or three times, then I would be very constipated.

"A neighbor told me of Black-Draught and I began its use. I never have found so much relief as it gave me. I would not be without it for anything.

"It seemed to cleanse my whole system and made me feel like new. I would take a few doses—get rid of the bile and have my usual clear head, feel full of 'pep' and could do twice the work."

Made from pure, medicinal roots and herbs, Black-Draught is nature's own remedy for such symptoms as the above, when due to a torpid liver.

Thedford's BLACK-DRAUGHT LIVER MEDICINE

Under the Capitol Dome

By J. G. Burr, Austin, Texas.

Texas schools sent their best to Austin last week in the 15th interscholastic meet. The best in intellectual and athletic accomplishments thronged the city 2,000 strong, including chaperones, making the crest and climax of the tide of five visiting conventions for the week. Young Texas was here, vigorous, strong and alert, the pledge of better things to be. See Texas and die is not to be thought of, for the young people are the prophecy of a future that one should live to see. They are but the samples of what is back at home and through their performances we can imagine myriads of reserves in training by careful and anxious teachers, many of whom came to witness the skill of their pupils. It was good to be here and feel the throb of young life and breathe the virgin atmosphere it brought from the wide reaches of wondrous Texas.

To tell all about this event is a task that even the daily reporters toyed with timidly and failed on, and this effort will be about like the rest. Of all that I saw, the declamation pleased most. Naomi Lovell of Quanah carried away the cup and medal for the best senior girl declaimer. She has a subject suited in every way, the declaration of American independence.

Coincidental, the boy winner of the cup Eli Goldstein, San Antonio, gave the famous speech of Patrick Henry and both Naomi and Eli made vivid appeals to the deep springs of patriotism. While Naomi Lovell was perfect ,so was Lucy Lea Watts of McKinney in the opinion of those sitting near the writer who wondered how the judges would be able to decide which was the better. Another puzzling decision was the choosing between Goldstein and Jack Drake of Donna. Drake is about the best boy orator that has appeared in Austin in recent years. So sweeping was his manner that one forgot to study his points as he plead for the Americanization of immigrants. Blaine Holliman of Ennis won the cup in extemporaneous speaking on the subject, The Important Dates in Texas History. All selections were admirable.

There were five high school senior girls and five boys and six extemporaneous contestants at the finals who had worked their way through contests of city, county ,and district, 32 of each class reaching Austin. Here they were winnowed again thru semi-finals and finals until the cup, was reached. What an honor to reach the last stand, even though failing to win! Quite honorable too, to be best in one's town or county and be a contender for Austin honors.

In a double team debate of boys and girls San Antonio and Yorktown won over Desdemona and Miami on the question: Resolved that the United States should grant the Philippine Islands their idependence at the end of a period of five years. The girl winners were Mary Louise Murray and Mary Nell Haddon of San Antonio on the negative side and Ladner Nau and Harold Brantley of Yorktown also negative on the boy side. The girl affirmatives were Mary Roberts and Everetta Love of Desdemona and the boy affirmatives were Acie Estes and Polk Wells of Miami.

THE GAMES.

The rain of the night before was followed by a clear sky and a hot sun that beat down upon stadium spectators of the games Saturday afternoon. M. Willis of Sweetwater won the one mile race in four minutes 38 3-10 seconds, being three tenths seconds longer than the interscholastic record, a mere trifle under so hot a sun. Weldon Draper of Fort Worth won in the 100 yard dash in nine and nine tenths seconds, a new record over the ten seconds of the past two years and in the 220 yard dash in 22 seconds. The 440 yard dash was won by Rudolph Coles of Houston in 51 and nine tenths seconds, a little under the record of 50 and one fifth seconds of the year before. The 220 yard low hurdles was won by Roy Stevens of Abilene, time 24.7, setting a new record. In the javelin throwing M. Hammon of Electra won, tossing his weapon 171 feet and ten inches. This is the first year for that sport, Hammon's throw constituting a record for others to strive for.

Pole vault was won by Sullivan of Dallas, 11 feet, 2 1-2 inches; the high jump by Stewart of Breckenridge, 6 feet, 2 1-2 inches; broad jump was won by Stevens of Abilene a fraction under 23 feet.

Two hundred cities and towns were represented in track meet. Cameron sent seven: Fred Young, Fred Childress, Nelson Green, Clarence Sapp, Ed. and Earl Thompson, Wallace Moody.

Floydada sent five: Hal Scott, C. Norman, E. Carter, Buford Terry, Frances Beeson, Elbert Wesson, Wayne Thompson and Chester Harris. Sealy sent one: P. Engleking. Taft sent four: Leslie Wallace, Carrol Cook, Rosseau Nutt, and Cecil Pyron. These being some of the points where this letter is published.

TALK OF A SPECIAL SESSION.

There is newspaper talk of a special session of the legislature some time in June but the governor is silent on the matter beyond the fact that she did not see the need of one. The most significant utterance was that of Farmer Jim some weeks ago who in reply to an inquiry said, wait till it rains. It has rained all over Texas and naturally the prophets are prognosticating.

Ouch! Aching Joints, Rub Rheumatic Pain

Rheumatism is "pain" only.

Not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Stop drugging! Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil" right into your sore, stiff, aching joints, and relief comes instantly. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless rheumatism liniment which never disappoints and cannot burn the skin.

Limber up! Quit complaining! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, and in just a moment you'll be free from rheumatic pain, soreness and stiffness. Don't suffer! Relief awaits you. "St. Jacobs Oil" is just as good for sciatica, neuralgia, lumbago, backache, sprains.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre At Once

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

To the Members of the Cameron Mutual Life Insurance Association

A Local Mutual Aid Association.

Cameron, Texas, May 12, 1925.

We herewith submit to you a brief statement of the condition of your Association together with information that should be as interesting to you as it is satisfactory to us.

At the above date, your association has 2,000 members. Since April, 12, 1922, the date of organization, we have issued 2317 policies. This means that we have lost by death and lapses, 317, members. We have had 11 deaths and one disability, we have paid out for death claims $9,974 and for disability $200, making a total of $10,174 we have paid out since organization.

For the above amount we have made 7 assessments. We have made 6 collections for dues. This is a total amount of $13, the greatest amount paid out by any memebr over a period of a little over three years.

For the purpose of checking, we give you eleven deceased members as follows: Frank Bolf, Buckholts, Texas; James L. Johnson, Rockdale, Texas; Mrs. Katie Middleton, Rockdale, Texas; W. N. Carothers, Georgetown, Texas; Mrs. Mary Foutain, Rockdale, Texas; F. A. Zelisco, Buckholts, Texas; Harry Steinberg, Rockdale, Texas; W. T. Hefley, Cameron, Texas; Thomas S. Taylor, Denver, Colo.; Mrs. Rosie V. Wade, Rockdale, Texas; B. M. Hutcherson, Rockdale, Texas; for disability, Miles H. Casey, Chriesman, Texas.

We wish to call your attention to the fact that no assessment in this Association is made for more nor less than $1 per member and assessments are only made as needed, when a benefit is paid, and this payment leaves less than $1,000 in the Tresaury, an assessment then is made. Every assessment when it is completed and all lapses are made good, puts $2,000 in the Treasury.

We are asking, that if you want information regarding this Association to write or see us. You will always get safest information direct from this secretary whose duty it is to inform you.

The officers of the Association are justly proud of the record "we" have made and you are fortunate in securing a safe protection at such little cost to you.

Assuring you that we will continue to use every effort for your convenience, and protection and with our heartiest and best wishes, we are

Very truly yours,

The Cameron Mutual Life Insurance Association

TRY SULPHUR ON AN ECZEMA SKIN

Costs Little and Overcomes Trouble Almost Over Night

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.

Drink Water If Kidneys Bother

Take a Tablespoonful of Salts if Back Pains or Bladder is Irritated

Flush your kidneys by drinking a quart of water each day, also take salts occasionally, says a noted authority, who tells us that too much rich food forms acids which almost paralyze the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken; then you may suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To help neutralize these irritating acids; to help cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

Opportunity Invites Real Dirt Farmers

George W. West ranch in Live Oak County now being cut up into 80 acre blocks.

This is considered the best big strip of farm land in Texas. Now selling to actual settlers at from $12 to $30 per arce according to "lay" and "location." One fourth cash, balance 10 years, on or before notes at 6 per cent. Ideal climate, plenty of rain, 10 months before frost to make mature crops.

Fine wells of inexhaustable water can be had on every acre at from 40 to 150 feet.

No hard pan hills or flats, no swamps, swales or lakes, all drains but is not steep or washy.

The town of George West, county seat of Live Oak county, stands almost in the center of this ranch, on the San Antonio, Uvalde & Gulf Railroad, 64 miles north of Corpus Christi, a deep water port that opens to the commerce of the world.

George West has a new $150,000 court house, a magnificent school building, etc. A great part of our land now already for sale lies around this town.

We also have surveyed and on the market fine lands ranging from heavy loam to black hogwallows around Kittie, another growing town on the ranch.

Move out to a new country; even if you have to camp a year, it won't hurt you, there is little or no winter down there.

Our man is always at George West ready with a car to show you around, if you prefer I will be glad to carry you through in a car.

There is an opportunity in Live Oak county on George West Ranch. For further information see

Records of Senior Athletes

In these few paragraphs we are trying to put before the world the records of all the athletes in the Senior class. We do not want to brag but you will have to admit that the Senior class of this year has turned out more athletes than any other class in the history of either Yoe Hi or Cam. Hi.

The following is a brief summary of the achievements of athletes in the Senior class:

Bob Boykin—Star left tackle on foot ball team. A two letter man. Good enough for any all state team.

"Bones" Cheeves—Center on foot ball team. Captain of 1924 eleven. Twe letter man—received honorable mention by coaches all over the state as center. Also member of Yo Hi basket ball team—county champions. Javelin thrower in track and first baseman of Yoemen nine. Captain base ball '25.

Joe Hefley—Captain of '25 eleven—quarerback and three letter man. Member of basket ball squad—vaulter and winner in county meet.

"Uncle" Young—All star fullback for the past three years. Member on county champion basket ball team. Winner of 120 high hurdles in all meets over state—second Charlie Paddick in 100. Outfielder on base ball team.

"Hot Shot Tindall"—All round athlete—in all sports of Yoe Hi. We hate to see such a valuable man leave us.

"Dedo" Jeter—Star guard on foot ball team. Member of basket ball squad.

Efford Hazeltine—Another good guard. Also all around student.

Elmo "Stack Baggett—A two year old halfback . Also a base ball star.

"Nance Green—A good man in foot ball but was forced to remain out of the past season on account of a fractured back. Also a second Nurmi. Winner of mile in county meet.

"Soppy" Sapp—The fastest man in Yoe Hi. Also a great basket ball player.

Earl Thompson—Star end on foot ball team. Also good track man.

Doyle Rice—Foot ball, basket ball, track and base ball star.

"Baby Boy" Criswell—A new addition to the Yoe athletics. A sure enough tough basket ball man.

"Dish" McCown—He holds down the "hot corner"

"Willy" Denson—Best little outfielder in Yoe Hi.

"Zeke" Wiley—Hard hitting little quarter back on Yoemen team. Also origniator of "Zeke's Professionals" a basket ball squad.

"Whit" Ford—The man from Baileyville. Good in any thing.

"Les" Williams—Halfback on foot ball team .

"Chili" Fikes—Another good man any where you put him.

"Brother" Baskin—Again we have a good all around man.

"Minnie" Reese—All star tackle and guard. 2 letter man. Member county champions basket ball team. Track '24.

Next we will take up the girl athletes. This year the girls athletics first loomed up brightly in Yoe Hi.

The athletes among the fairer sex are:

"Pete" Thompson—A probuct from Ben Arnold. Star on basket- ball team.

"Sookey" Dodson—Another Ben Arnold product. Also on basket ball team.

Helen Dunham—Basket ball.

Mary Freeman—Volley ball.

Vlasta Hovlik—Basket ball.

"Sis" Baskin—All star tennis player of Yoe Hi.

Jean McFadyen—Another tennis player.

Irene Bell—Volley ball.

Thelma Greenless—Volley ball.

Recommendations for the coming year:

1 A blanket tax of $3 be levied against each high school student. This tax to cover the expense of games, play ground equipment, school paper, lyceum tickets for students library fee.

2. A physical examination be required of every high school student within tihrty days from the opening of school.

3. An athletic council be appointed by the Board for the control of high school athletics.

4. Physical Education be required of every high school student, with a minimum of not less than three hours per week.

5. That a combination lock be required on all lockers. A dollar depository fee be required against each lock, this fee to be returned at the end of the year .

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET CONTEMPLATED.

In accordance with the custom of the Juniors, treating the Seniors at the end of the year, the junior class forming plans which if carried out will be a joy to every junior and senior, for they will be the generous hosts to a banquet. On one occasion this year the two classes combined in a picnic which proved a huge success, and it is the wish of every one that the two classes will again unite in a joyous festival.

YOEMEN AT STATE MEET

On Friday, May 8, the following track men accompanied by Coaches Perkins nad Lacy, went to the State Interscholastic Track Meet held at Ausitn: "Soppy" Sapp, Ed. Thompson, "Unk" Young.

Although the Yoemen tied the State records of previous years, they failed to place in the finals. They all placed in the semi-finals however, and we think that that in itself is a worthy accomplishment.

Senior Class Prophecy

As we raise the curtain on the Future and gaze on the infinite space of Time we see many changes in the members of the Class of '25. Some have advanced, prospered, and have become famous in their line of work; others have failed, a dismal failure that is characteristic of their High School Life.

The setting for this act is fifteen years later. The stage is set in various ways, in foreign lands, covering the entire United States, especially in the adjoining counties of Milam, where many have gone to see what this mystery called Life has in store for them.

As we boarded the Tonnerville trolley taking an excursion, we met our old friend Chick Green, acting as conductor, and talking consolingly to his Woodpecker, Oswald. Among some of his passengers we found many other old acquaintances, namely, John Jeter, the Village Blacksmith ,with his brown and sinewy arms.

John told us about meeting Jean McFadyen, who was an old maid school teacher out at Hoyt. She is the most promient person in this metropolitan city. Among some of the distinguished citizens of that city is Mr. Sam Cheeves, mayor, with Mr. Alton Ledbettre, teaching Sheikihm, to the young men of the town.

Stepping on over to Marlow, we found in this city, things of the same character. The Chief of Police was Willie Denson, who carried us about the town and showed us the improvement that had been made since he had entered the office. The crime wave has been diminished to a great extent by the assistance of Nelson Green, deputy, and Robert McCown, speed cop. Also on visiting the jail we found Miss Alice Covan, acting as police matron.

We viewed the magnificent home of Mr. Delmar Criswell and his wife, formerly Miss Clyde Baskin, who was always the flirt of our class. It was a magnificent structure, and among his servants was Mr. Clarence Sapp, his chief Rabbit Catcher, of which Mr. Criswell at many. His valet was Mr. Frank Mohler, and his attractive chauffeur was Mr. Wallace Hopkins, who certainly made the Lizzie Hop.

On leaving this fair city, we put out on the highway toward our old home town, and when down the road a few miles, we noticed a very familiar face, and also pretty figure, following old Beck down between the peanut rows. On approaching closer we observed it to be our old friend, Mr. Jesse Laurence. He seemed to have made a success of this business after many years of careful training. In the same field wielding a hoe, was the former mayor of Maysfield, Warren White, who had not been so successful as Mr. Laurence, it seemed.

After exchanging a few hand shakes, we left them, and approached closer toward our own city. On the outskirts, we noticed a very tall man slapping advertisement bills on a sign board. His frame seemed to suit his position, as you would agree with us, when we tell you it was Bob Boykin, our lanky and swift friend of old school days.

On arriving in town, and before departing, we wished to make it a point to call one of our old chums, and bid him a farewell, before we left for distant points. Upon taking down the receiver, we recognized the "Number please?" voice to be that of Mary V. Atkinson. Upon trying to flirt with her, she informed us we were flirting with the city undertaker, Mr. Carl Bryan, and his assistant, Miss Mary Freeman. We decided it was then getting time to leave, and upon enteing the depot to buy our tickets, we were astonished in finding Mr Codron Young Wiley, acting as ticket agent. His abiilty in holding this position certainly surprised us, as did his ability to hold down the position of President of the Class of '25, which was the grandest class that every entered the doors of Yoe Hi.

Upon boarding the Sap, we found the "buther" to be our old chum Mr. Lester Williams, and found him to be a credit to the uniform which he wore. Upon talking with Mr. Williams, we found that Mr. Whitman Ford was rattling along without having much influence over his wife who was formerly Miss Sorenze Janak.

On further investigation, we met Mr. T. J. Favor, and his wife, nee, Miss Irene Bell. They were closely pursuing their profession which was that of selling riding habits. Among some of thier reliable customers were Misses Cora Mae Link, teacher of the Kindergarten of Silver City, her home town; Johnnie Mode, wife of a very wealthy egg-shell manufacturer; and Frances White, wife of a very daring human-spider, who had become famous by scaling the dizzy heights of Sugar Loaf Mountain, in Milam county.

On arriving in Galveston, we were greeted by a young lady, not so young but young in actions, who knew us but we did not know her. She was the well known newspaper reporter, Miss Louise Young, formerly of Thorndale. The manager of the paper was none other than Mr. Frank Mondrik, and they assured us that it would be a privilege to publish the names of such distinguished visitors Of course we did not object for we had never been so far from home before. We were presented a paper by Mr. Mondrik and on glancing through it we noted that Joe Hefley and Carl Fikes had turned insurgents in one of the Central Aemican countries and were creating havoc in those parts. Detective Elmo Baggett was working on the case and it was thought that he would soon run the criminals down

While in Galveston, a Bathing Girl Revue was in progress and among the personnel we found many of the girls of our class. Miss Mervia Thompson was leading the review. Others were Misses Inez Goff, Laura Boedeker ,Thora Mae Fikes, Annie Mae Dodson and Lucile Robinson. Mr. Gilbert Tindall acted as judge, being very attentive while the revue was in progress. After making the decision, Mr. Tindall was minus one eye and several front teeth. After this accident he proceeded to visit the doctors office and it proved to be none other than our distinguished classmate Mr. George Herring. He had prospered greatly in his profession, having a large staff in his office. We noticed one small, chic, young lady, who acted as special attendant to the doctor. On getting a good view of her we recognized her to be Miss Lula Head. She had a good view of her town from where she worked. She had lost her fear of bugs, the screaming of birds, and other such nonsense and developed into a nervy assistant.

As we could not tarry long in the town, we went to secure berths on a steamer bound for New York City. In the office we met a very business like man who was the proud owner a goatee. When he introduced himself as Mr. O. V. Sheffield, we at once recognized him to be our old school mate. We hardly recognized him then, for the decorations had him completely disguised.

On boarding the ship, we found that our fellow passengers were people of renown. One was an artist, who went by the name of Maria Helena Jeter but we easily recognized her as Miss Mary Ellen Jeter. Mr. Frank Storey was a dealer in stocks and bonds, the stock being hogs and cows, the bonds being the rope that bound them. Miss Ganelle Cox was a musician of note and dealt in high class music. She was a demonstrator for the Victrola people. Miss Elizabeth Adams was traveling for her health.

At night we were kept awake by some one restlessly pacing on the deck. On investigating the matter we found that it was Mr. Fred Young. He had a good excuse for molesting people at night for he had a child on each arm and was doing his best to keep them quiet We sympatized with him but did not offer to help him with his troubles.

When the time for embarkment came ,we were loath to leave the ship and the passengers. The custom agent was our esteemed friend, Mr. Pool Jamison. He was a hard customer but was also faithful to his job. There was a score of Red Cross nurses at the dock. Among them we saw the Misses Lula Bell Ingram, Bessie Richards, Lillian Weems and Thelma Greenless. Miss Itasca Hamilton was the secretary for a large banking concern in the city.

We made a trip down Broadway stretching our necks in the fashion of country boys, and our attention was drawn to a large electric sign at a large theater. It was featuring the star of Broadway, Miss Hilda Burke, in the "Modern Girl." We entered the theater by the side entrance but as we did not have the ready cash to pay our way, they ushered us out the back. We were well content to leave after they had administered the rule of the rod to those who did not pay.

We could not stay in this city long and started back toward Texas, not on a ship this time, but afoot. We stopped at a house begging a little food. At this place we recognized the lady of the house to be Miss Oleta Modisette. She was very accomodating, turned the dogs on us and told us to make it back to the Lone Star State. On arriving at a small inland city, we joined the "Knot Hole Gang" to view a base ball game. The balls were rising over the right field fence in succession. On inquiring who the moundsman was we were informed that Mr. Doyle Rice was in the box. Mr. Frank Polzer was umpire and was calling time for the circuit runs. This made us feel at home for it reminded us of the base ball team of '25.

At the next village we inquired as to who was the most prominent people in town . They told us that it was a town run by women and that all of them were from Texas. Miss Annie Richert was mayor, Miss Gertrude Batla city attorney, Miss Adelaide Bickett chief of police, and Miss Marcella Marak was district judge. On receiving this information, we quietly left town and caught the next freight going South. On hanging the freight we were seen and ragged off at the next sation. We were arraignd for trial the next day. Miss Susie Bell Aycock acted as counsel for the defense; opposing was Miss Louise tkinson, acting for state. We were turned loose on account of it taking too much to feed us and we were advised to make it to Texas in a short time.

We soon reached Texas, and on passing through the city of Milano we stopped to chat with Mr. Willard Reese. A betting match was going on as to who could hit a chip fartherest away with a quid of tobacco. Mr. Reese was winner by three yards. After shaking the sand out of his whiskers and picking a grass bur out of his foot he came over and shook hands with us. We were glad to see the old scout. He informed us that he held several records as to his achievements. Among these was champion whittler, peanut raiser and horse-shoe pitcher.

This is the history of the Class of '25 as told by the two noted vagabonds Fred Johnson and Efford Hazeltine, may they always be prosperous in their chosen profession and always remember that they were "All for one, one for all."

LATEST FROM THE SQUITATED PRESS.

We are glad to announce that we have found the Rudolph Valentino, Ben Turpin, Buster Keaton, Richard Barthlemess and Harold Lloyd, namely Lester Williams, Robert McCown, Bill Baskin, Nelson Green and "Chick" Green. We discovered these by mistake—through the pictures made by the Dixie Service Co., of Atlanta, Georgia.

Under the Capitol Dome

By J. G. Burr, Austin, Texas.

It has become a fashion among certain political writers to speak prophetically about the next governor's arce. It is well. We like to pull the veil of the future aside and take a peep especially when the things there hidden are what we want to see come to pass and even when the worst is coming we like to know it. But between the two horns of this dilemma there is always the consoling fact that good results will be worked out even if the ship of state does a little tacking to reach its destination. Personally the writer is not concerned in any particular aspirant. He has torn his last shirt. Shirts cost money and the returns for political labors do not justify the outlay, and in recent years there have been added sheets and pillow slips to the political wardrobe. Not that political aspirants should be discouraged entirely; they are a necessary evil and a blessing in disguise, nor would the writer recommend secrecy or silence as to one's preference, or the practice of political locklaw.

From the very start of the last gubernatorial race it was evident to all careful observers that only four of the nine candidates had any [illegible] at all to be elected. The four were Ferguson, Robertson and the two Davidsons. It would be possible for a party committee to pass on the chances of election of a candidate and thus practically eliminate the negligible ones by the disillusionment of their followers. But such a reliable committee is an impossibility in politics. Aspirants will continue to come in hordes and most of them will seek to befuddle the people as to issues. Most of them seek to justify their race on the grounds of some appalling abuse o fgovernment. Why not an aspirant once in a while who would claim attention on the simple grounds that he is a decent gentleman of ability who would make a good governor?

Texas ought to elect its governor for four years instead of two. He no sooner gets into office with the present system than he is compelled to start a campaign for re-election and the time he would prefer to devote to the state he is forced to spend in getting back into office the second time. Also the salary is inadequate.

But with all these disadvantages there will be entrants enough in the coming gubernatorial handicap. There is Lynch Davidson, of course, who will continue to be a candidate until elected or until the last possibility vanishes. He is the one defeated candidate of the last race who retains his followng. Dan Moody is spoken of as a possible candidate but does not talk. Mrs. Ferguson does not talk and the sphinx-like attitude of these two puts a blurr on the political horizon. Why put the enemy wise if they intend to run and if they do not intend to run, whose business is it? The probable fact is that neither has yet decided and will be guided by future developments. Certain observers of the recent disagreement between the governor and the attorney general have seemed to see the foundation of a future political battle. If Mr. Moody runs he will be sure to have a better reason than a personal pique against the governor, if such a pique exists, and if he does run he will shatter the chances of Davidson. If Mrs. Ferguson decides to make the race again she will have the aid of many state employees in the administrative departments under her patronage, the tradition that Texas always honors a governor with a second term and the further argument that she is a lady, and the first lady governor, and that it would be discourteous to deny her what had been granted to men (when they fought for it) thus handing to women suffrage a slap in the face. It will require an unusual candidate to defeat Mrs. Furguson. Let none but real men apply.

Her successful opponent would have to take the position that Mrs. Ferguson had not been the leader of a woman movement for recognition, that she had asked for only one term as a vindication, that it had been granted and that an amnesty bill had been passed and that Texas had done all it could to favor the Fergusons personally and that they jointly having been elected three tinse to the office of governor ,could have no further claims upon the people for that place.

If the former governor intends to run for the United States Senate against Mayfield it would be natural for him to want a ground term for Mrs. Ferguson in order that there be no break in the political fences, but what his plans are no one knows.

The klan issue in politics will be dead beyond service and any successful fight on Mayfield will have to be based on his record while in office or other reasons conceivable to an opponent. The wise politician never decides such things so far in advance but leaves them a matter of conjecture for the curious.

WALTON MEET CHANGES DATE.

The date of the Izaak Walton meet at Brady which was announced in a recent letter has been changed and set for June 8 and 9 .

Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, Turner Hubby attends a conference in Washington on the 20th inst., at which fish commissioners and commercial fishermen will be in attendance. Mr. Hubby visited the Texas coast and invited dealers interested to attend and take part in discussing the problems of the Atlantic and Gulf coasts. This meeting was called by Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce.

WINFIELD-SIDER, WEDDING.

A very pretty wedding was that of Mr. Ben Winfield of Cameron, and Miss Sophia Sider of Fort Worth, Texas which took place Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. Wiensteen of Wort Worth, with Dr. Harry Merfeld soleminzing the cremeony.

The wedding march was played by Miss Mildred Wiensteen at the piano and Miss Byrens on the violin.

The living room was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and cut flowers. At one end of the room an altar was improvised Mrs. S. Kestenbaum of Cameron was matron of honor. She was handsomely gowned in blonde chiffon with harmonizing accessories and wore a corsage of sweet peas.

Mr. Winfields' best man was Mr. S. Kestenbaum of Cameron.

Miss Sider was given in marriage by Mr. and Mrs. Wiensteen. The bride wore a lovely yellow gorgette dress and a large picture hat to match. Her bouquet was of pink rosebuds and lilies of the valley, arranged in a shower effect.

Immediately following the ceremony a seven course dinner was served to the relatives and immediate friends.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. S. Kestenbaum and their son, Adolph Winfield of Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kestenbaum of Rockdale, and Miss Lena Aronson of Waco.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Winfield have arrived in Cameron where they are receiving the congratulations of friends. On June 1, 1925, they will begin housekeeping in Mrs. Ella Hooks' apartment.

HOME ECONOMICS EXHIBIT.

On Thursday afternoon the Yoe High School Auditorium was comfortably filled with visitors and guests invited to be present for the annual exhibition given by the talented members of the Home Economics department. The following program was secured from one of the students:

Dorothy Denson, Bethel Middleton, Allene Maddox, Kathleen Ely, Lydia Boedeker, Maurine Ratliff, Cornelia Gunn, Merle Carroll Elizabeth McDermott.

The informal talks made by Misses Evelyn Ashworth and Amy Kinard were listened to with closest attention and generously applauded. Each student gave a splendid shewing for her years work in the Home Economics Department which is in charge of Miss Eleanor Henslee.

After the program the visitors went to the H. E. sewing room to look at the General Exhibit and there they were served refreshments by the H. E. cooking students.

LAWN PARTY.

Miss Annie and Millie Krull of Elm Ridge entertained their friends of the community with a lawn party Sunday night May 17. In addition to the friends of their own community there were some from Salem, Ad Hall, Milano and other good friends from Cameron.

The lawn was lighted with three bright lanterns which gave a beautiful light over the lawn. Many ring games that the guests chose to play were enjoyed. After the games were over, "Silver Threads Among the Gold," was sung, by three beautiful voices, and conversations were held between the guests for a short time. They then reported an enjoyable time, and left for their homes at a late hour.

The Presbyterian Auxiliary met Monday afternoon in Circles for Bible Study. The Book of Ecclesiastes formed the basis of the lesson in each group. A social feature with refreshments was provided by each hostess when the lesson was done.

Circle one met with with Mrs. E. Eggert. Mrs. J. H. Sapp led the lesson.

Circle two met with Mrs. James Watson with Mrs. John Edwards leading.

Circle three met in the home of Mrs. J. L. Barmore. Eight members and one visitor, Mrs. Aldice of Dallas were present. The lesson was led by Mrs. A. V. Mitchell.

EASTERN STAR.

At a called meeting of the O. E. S. on Tuesday evening Rev. R. S. Marshall, Will Stafford, C. S. Peyton and Alex Triggs and Mrs. Preston Graves were initiated into the Order. One guest, Mrs. Ranoid of Houston, was present.

Cream and Cake were served during the social hour that followed the initiation.

A regular meeting for the election of officers for next year will be held next Tuesday evening. A large attendance is urged.

BRIDGE CLUB.

On Friday last Mrs. Fritz Fahrendorff complimented the Bridge Club with one of her cleverly planned entertainments. Four tables of players were assembled for the hospitality. The home was decorated with bright snap dragons and gay hued scores and tallies were used at the handsomely appointed tables. A salad and ice course was attractively served at the conclusion of the spirited series of games.

Out of town guests included Mesdames Osburne and Bainbridge Jones of Waco, Miss Maitland Osborne and Mrs. Edward Terrell.

LOYAL WOMAN'S COUNCIL.

Members of the Loyal Woman's Council of the Christian church met in the home of Mrs. Will Tucker on Monday afternoon. Arrangements to further the building program of the new church were discussed.

BAPTIST W. M. U.

Thirty members of the Baptist Woman's Mission Union met at the church Monday afternoon for Bible study from the Book of Acts led by Miss Lily Mag Jeter.

Next Monday the circle groups will meet in the home of members.

Little Miss Virginia Freeman celebrated her fifth birthday with a party recently to which her little friends were invited and a joyful afternoon spent on the lawn of the beauutiful Freeman home. Ice cream was bountifully served by Mrs. Freemen to the little guests and their friends and Virginia was made happy by birthday wishes and dainty gifts.

Misses Alixe and Lucile Ford were hostesses to their friends for a Sunday morning breakfast at their home in Baileyville. Misses Eloise Rogers of Baylor College and Eugenia Wallace of Cameron were present and among others the following young men from Cameron: Messrs Dan Collins, Ralph Togo Joynes, Frank Plaster and Tom Sampson of Waco.

The Methodist Missionary Society met Monday afternoon in groups:

Circle one met with Mrs. W. J. Wood. Devotional exercises were led by Mrs. R. H. McIntosh. The Voice lesson was led by Mrs. Joe B. Lindsey assisted by Mrs. Wood and Mrs. C. H. Ruby.

Circle two met with Mrs. M. M. Johnson. Mrs. D. F. Welsch led Bible lesson. The hostess conducted the Missionary Voice lesson assisted by Mesdames Rylander and Alford.

Circle Three with 17 members and 3 visitors met with Mrs. C. N. Green. Miss Mollie Moore led the Devotional and Voice programs, assisted by Mesdames Pope Sapp, G. C. White and Frank Plaster.

Circle four met with Mrs. T. J. Denson with twelve members present. Devotional and Voice study was led by Mrs. B. F. Bonds, assisted by Mrs. J. L. Clinton, Mrs. T. J. Denson and all who were present.

Light refreshments were served to all groups.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church met with Mrs. R. P. Jeter last Monday and the program of the afternoon included the reading of several items of interest in current events of the religious world, followed by a brief discussion of a series of questions on Christian Unity. Beginning with next Sunday the Auxiliary will unite with many people throughout hte world, in A Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

Tuesday night Misses Annie and Marie Lorenz and Miss Josephine Dreiss of the Cameron Hospital left Cameron for a summer abroad. They will spend some time in Germany with relatives and will visit many important citizes in Europe. They will study hospital management in the countries of Southern Europe and see the sights in the various European ports and capitals. Their return in the fall will be hailed with joy by their many friends and admirers in Cameron where their absence will be so much felt during this summer.

We offer you the First Heavy Duty Cord For Motor Cars--

A Goodyear Tire of Course

Truck owners have always been able to get a tire exactly suited to their needs.

Goodyear gave them a complete line to choose from, a long time ago.

Why shouldn't motorists have the same opportunity?

We don't all drive alike. Some like to loiter along, picking smooth pavement. Others like to drive and disregard the road.

For the driving kind, Goodyear now gives us the first real heavy duty cord ever made for the motor car service—

THE NEW GOODYEAR HEAVY-DUTY CORD.

Extra Strong, Extra Fast. Made with six to eight plies of Goodyear SUPERTWIST. Made rut-proof and curb-proof by thick circumferential ribs of Goodyear's livest rubber. Made powerful, safe and sure by the Goodyear All-Weather Tread.

We've kept the big surprise for the last; the price is away below what you'd think. Call us up about it.

Boy Scout News

By Geo. P. Barron.

To Scout Leaders:—If you will promise to read what is said in such a letter each week I shall attempt to put out a letter chronicling the news items of interest over the area. Being behind scouting financially and morally you are entitled to know something of what is going on over the area. If you like the idea and the publication tell me about it if you don't like it tell others and let them tell me. I'll get sore if you tell me. If you have a suggestion make it in a nice way so it will be received.

LOCALS AND PERSONALS.

Rosebud—Being the oldest troop in the area the little town of Rosebud is hereby listed first in this column. Scoutmasters Collins, Little, Kasparek and Henslee headed by their able Deputy Commissioner Charlie Myer are causing their boys to literally eat up the merit badge work. According to Mr. Rea and Reed of this place the expert examiners have been unable to do much work in their regular profession since these boys started. At a recent meeting of the newly organized Court of Honor 86 merit Badges were awarded to about a dozen first class scouts. It is so interesting that the Scoutmasters are taking the work.

Rockdale—The Rockdale troop under the able leadership of Dr. A. E. Swafford is gradually growing and advancing in scouting. The growth of this troop has not been spasmodic but has been gradual and the work has been done thoroughly. At a recent meeting of this troop a tenderfoot investiture ceremony was held that proved interesting and impressive. Four first class scouts have been made recently and with the recent organization of the Court of Honor we look for the Rockdale Scouts to duplicate the work of the Rosebud troop of the past week.

Marlin—We regret to report the illness of Earenst Donahoo, one of the Scoutmasters at Marlin. Scoutmaster Bell has been caring for both troops at this place due to Mr. Donahoo's illness. We need more leaders at Marlin—leaders that really have a desire to do something for the boy. How are we going to get them?

In spite of the illness of Mr. Donahoo 40 of the Marlin scouts joined the Editor in a Scout School last Friday night. A helpful talk on first aid was given by Dr. W. D. Smith after which the boys put on an Indian Ring Ceremony that was quite entertaining. At 11:30 after the boys had completed the nights program and all had gone to sleep to the sweet music of "taps" a guard suddenly appeared at headquarters tent and reported a storm brewing. Five minutes after the guard had informed the bugler that assembly was to be blown the boys were packed and on their way to town. All got wet but soon forgot their troubles in sweet slumber under their mother's care.

Cameron—Things are looking better for scouting in Cameron since J. P. Love, J. C. Tucker and Joe Denson took charge of the boys in Troop 1. This troop was about to go on the rocks when these gentlemen agreed to take the wheel and now they know they are going to win everything at the Jamboree. Troops 2, under J. B. Collier is putting the boys over their test at a rapid rate and now has four first class scouts. Troop 3 under the leadership of Guy Newton has grown from a dozen scouts to about twenty. This troop is expecting trouble since Mr. Newton is leaving for the summer but I happen to know that our old friend John Henderson has about caught up with his abstract work and that school will soon be out and all the young lady teachers will be gone so am expecting John to get into the harness and do things with the boys.

"If he can scout like he can ?" what a great scout man he'll be. He can.

Calvert—The Editor spent several pleasant hours with the Calvert boys the past week giving tests and working with the boys. At last Calvert under the able leadership of our old fisherman friend, Franz Dietsch and two assistants, Cox and Marquis, is coming to the front. Calvert has always had the gamest bunch of boys in the area but they have been neglected in the past.

Hearne—The place that some peopie liked to term the "hard nut" is doing some fine work. Aubrey McNeil and Hermann Wikerson have organized two troops over there that are hard to beat. They are cleaning up the old berg and really showing the people that scouting pays. I haven't seen these boys since the Robertson county scout school was held at Franklin, but am not worried for I know they are going good. I go there tonight to meet with the boys and lay plans for the Robertson county scout school for this week end. McNeil says he has a dandy camping place on the river where fish are biting good.

Franklin—Possibly the most consistent growth that has been made in the area has been in the Franklin troop, under that old war-horse Tom Hamilton as Scoutmaster. This troop has never lagged a moment but the boys have been busy passing tests and having a genuine clean and wholesome good time. From the looks of the number of larger boys in this troop Mr. Mamilton is going to give some troop a run for their money on the heaviest patrol at the Jamboree on June 15th. His boys are real boys and I'll enjoy this week end in camp with them.

Lott—For some reason, Lott has never been able to raise their quota f the budget for the area hence I have not worked with them recently. There is a good troop there under the leadership of Mr. Nabers and I am in hopes that these boys will conduct themselves in such a way as to tell scouting to the people that they will get behind the boys in a financial way so that they may do some real scouting.

Milano—The Milano troop has fallen thru on account of the town not backing the work financially. Miiano was hard hit the past year on crops but from reports of recent rains I am of the opinion that things are looking better and that the boys will get into the work in the near future.

EDITORIALS.

Charter Application—If you have not sent in your Application for Charter together with fees for the boys look after this today. Only 8 troops have registered. This is very important and I should like to ask you again to attend to this.

Jamboree, June 15th. Start practicing the work that will be staged at the Jamboree. Boost it on every occasion and be sure that you leave this date open and bring a load of boys over with you on this occasion.

Summer Camp:—Go to talking the summer camp to the boys. Make plans to spend a part of your vacation in the camp with the boys this summer. It will do you good to be there and mingle with the boys for a few days. How does it go "He that would become great must become as a little boy?"

Scout Leaders School—I want to hold a school for Scout Leaders about the last of the month or the first part of June. Details will be worked out and you will be informed of date, etc., in next week's News.

MAY OUTPUT OF CHEVROLET INCREASES.

Detroit, Mich., May 19.—The production schedule of Chevrolet motor cars and trucks for this month will exceed that of April, during which 52,236 units were built, an average of more than 2,000 for each of the 26 working days.

Maintenance of the May schedule will displace April as the second highest production month in Chevrolet history; the largest was October of 1923.

The 52,236 April production includes cars and trucks made in the plants at Flint, Mich., the seven assembly plants and the factory at Oshawa, Ont., for both domestic and foreign sale.

A continuation of the present schedule will result at the end of this month in an aggregate Chevrolet production of 193,050 cars and trucks since January 1.

The highest record for one day's production since the organization of the company was established on April 30 when 4,064 cars and trucks were shipped from the various Chevrolet factories.

Production is still behind the sales demand even though the plants are running at full capacity.

Closed models comprised more than one-half of the shipments made in the United States during April. Advance orders indicate that the demand for the miproved Chevrolet Sedans, coupes and coaches will be even heavier during coming months.

A summary of national sales reports shows that every car shipped durnig April was delivered to a purchaser immediately upon arrival.

NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD OR CATARRH

Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages.

Ah! What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, mucous discharge, headache, dryness—no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Ely's Cream Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid.

Ode to the Seniors

Jean MacFadyen, Sr., '25.

Now oftentimes we've heard it said,
By folks of note who've talked and read,
That, "As concerns the classes here
In old Yoe-Hi, the one most drear,
The one that lacks the pep and jazz,
The "just plain dumbs;" the one that has
The clabberheads of all the bunch—"
This person says he has the bunch
It is the Seniors.
Now to this person let us say,
That up until the present day
WE think, no class residing here,
Deserves more praise, merits more cheer
For faming Yoe-Hi in the State,
Making her reputation great.
We've never let her colors fall,
We answer every beck and call,
We Seniors.
There never was a finer group,
Of boys and girls who would not stoop,
To little things to gain an end.
A Senior's everybody's friend.
Seniors are example setters ,
Seniors are the "old go-getters."
A happy, jolly bunch are we,
And just as true as true can be
To old Yoe-Hi—We Seniors.

This year our team became well famed,
For on the foot ball squad were named.
Sixteen Seniors; and on the track,
It was a Senior who brought back
The bacon. Yes, we're always there
To carry back our high school's share
Of victories; and when we're through,
We always come right back to you
The same old Seniors.

Good-bye, we're leaving you this year,
This old high school we hold so dear,
These teachers and the students gay,
Our colors—the Maroon and Grey,
The peach-tree switch and hickory rod,
We even love the "dizzy squad' (?)
We're leaving—still I now recall,
We're all for one and one for all
And always will be—Just the Seniors.

SOMETHING ABOUT THE SENIOR CLASS.

'Way back in 1921 when the Class of '25 entered Yoe Hi, it out rivaled the greenery of the verdant Emerald Isles. The students of that class were seekers of education; they entered the wilderness of Algebra, Latin, History, General Science and English somewhat bewildered but with their omnipresent quality to get ahead, they conquered the untrodden lands, and eventually have attained the envied position of the Pioneers of Education in Yoe Hi.

That quality of greeness which every "Fish" must have in his reporterie soon faded and with rapid strides the "Fish" became accustomed to their new role, even as they did to the ever lurking Soph and upperclassman who hungered for revenge and a scalp, oft times springing on the unwary "Fish" from ambush. They achieved the distinction of being praised by Mr. L. H. Kidd for their ability to study, and given the Juniors a fight for first place in the Green of the Carnival Contest.

When they became Sophmores, the wise-fools of Yoe Hi, they retaliated and gained their long looked for revenge, extracting it from "poor innocent Fish." They set a remarkable record in study, sustaining the record of the previous year.

During their third year, they presented Yoe Hi with the painting, the "Blue Boy," the second class of Yoe Hi to present the school with a picture. With the help of their sponsor Miss Vera Lee Moore they gave the High School a school song representative of the spirit fostered in it that of fairness, pep, and "never say die" spirit. Their pep and unwonted zeal was a model of the High School, giving them the title as the peppiest class in Yoe Hi.

During the fourth year the Class of '25 achieved its greatest laurels. The class presented Inniss' "Home of Heron" to the school, sponsored the Austin Hi band, and contributed to the High School, the largest quota of athletes of any class. It had the largest number of foot ball letter men, constituted the greater part of the basket ball team, had several stellar track performers, and made up the largest percentage of the base ball team.

Up until the fourth year the Class of '25 held the High School Class foot ball championship. And if Dame Luck who is so fickle and desertes one in his direst need of her had favored the Seniors ,the toss of the coin would have decreed the Seniors champions for the fourth consecutive year.

The Seniors have set ideals, ex-classes to strive for, and perhaps to surpass. May the Juniors who so commended the Seniors in their edition become the best class in old Yoe Hi, to establish an age old tradition to make the Senior Class always the best in Yoe Hi.

JOKES

One and one make two, but two and two make trouble.

"Dooner"—"Why do you go to church so often?"

"Unk"—"Boy, it's a beautiful sight to see one man keep so many women quiet for such a long time."

Found on the library floor, a note as follows:

Dear Nora:

The dog I promised you is dead.

Hoping you are the same, I am

Yours truly,

Clydie Yarborough.

Bill—"Why do the snowflakes dance so?"

Hot Shot—"I bite, why do they?"

Bill—"They are practicing for the snow-ball, stupid."

Hop—"Say, Soppy, how did you get that red on your lips?"

Soppy—"That's my tag for parking too long in one place."

He—"I have a splinter in my finger."

She—" I told you about scratching your head."

Carl, musing—

We editors may dig and toil,
Until our finger tips are sore,
But there's always some poor nut who says,
I've read that joke before.

Here be the remains of a radio fan,
Now mourned by his many relations,
He went to a power mill smoking his pipe,
And was picked up by twenty-one stations.

Mike has been heard singing the new song entitled—"I met my girl in a revolving door and I've been going around with her ever since."

Delmar—"Too bad your girl didn't write you today."

Bill—"Who said she didn't write?"

Delmar—"Nobody said so, but I just handed you a piece of gum and you took off the wrapper and threw the gum in the basket, and now you're chewing the paper."

Willie Denson—"Well, I answered a question in class today."

Laura—"What answer did you give?"

Willie Denson—"Present.

A senior stood on a railroad track,
The train was coming fast
The train got off the railroad track
And let the Senior pass.

Billie Newton—"Mother, may I have a nickle for the old man who is outside crying?"

Mother—"Yes, dear, but what is the man crying about?"

Billie—"He's crying "salty peanuts, five cents a bag."

Wee Wee entered—"The new Cameron Drug" and asked Buddo if he could recommend a good method of killing moths.

"Try moth-balls," said Buddo.

"Oh, they're useless," remarked Wee Wee, "I bought some last week and I couldn't hit one of the wretched things with them.

Mother, cried Kathryn Robbins as she rushed into the house, "Clay wants the Listerine. He's caught the cutest little black and white animal, and he thinks it has halitosia."

Joe Charles:—"They say that I am the best dancer in the country.

Jean—"You probably are, in the country."

Farmer—(addressing hen house) Who's in thar?

Quavering response from Joe Charles—"Nobody but just us chickens!"

Country—"Just think of our forest preserves."

City—"How about our subway jams."

Miss Moore—I hate to think of my thirty eighth birthday.

Lester W.—Why, what happened?

A SENIOR'S LAMENT.

Sung to the tune of the Prisoner's song. Author: Jean McFadyen, Sr., '25. May all Juiors heed this warning.

It was just two more weeks till commencement,
I was in Perkins' office one day,
When in came a down-hearted Senior,
And this is what I heard that Senior say:

'Oh please, can't I make it up somehow?
You know I have not done my best,
Let me take an exam in that English,
So I'll graduate with the rest.

I wish I had used more discretion,
And stayed at home more of a night,
So I'd passed these four subjects I've taken,
And ended my Senior year right.

My friends all have gone on and left me
They've left me to grieve all alone,
Oh, I wish I had passed in that History
And daily my Spanish had known.

The Senior had now finished speaking,
Had finished and heaved a great sigh,
For the hours he had wasted in laughter,
Had passed to that great bye and bye.

He stood waiting now for an answer,
That would plunge him in grief and despair,
For I'd anticipated what was coming,
And knew he'd be tearing his hair.

'We've told you all year you were flunking
When you failed every lesson and test,
Now go on and get out of my office.
No! You can't graduate with the rest."

Now all of you Juniors take warning,
For this story I've told is no lie.
If you wish to rejoice at commencement,
Study hard every day that goes by.

Now you who have read this sad story
This story that's often been told,
At the end of the year your diploma,
Will seem mounted with silver and gold.
